INSIDER REPORT
2019 SPD
RESOURCE GUIDE

Want SPD to succeed?
Ask what they need!

Recognizing needs of SPD are key to best results

by Valerie J. Dimond

Sterile processing professionals have been fighting for what they need to do their jobs well for a long time, and it's been a tough battle for many. That's because historically, the SPD/CS often wasn't viewed as a top priority, not until lately, and even now experts say there's more to be done. Nonetheless, a variety of recent circumstances - some good, some bad - is beginning to shift sterile processing into proper focus in the eyes of an increasing number of healthcare decision-makers.
